Don't AGGRAVATE Me!

There was a look of contentment on John Poter's face as he finished his breakfast. He pushed the newspaper aside and complimented his wife.

"That was a meal fit for a king. I think I am the luckiest man in the world to have a wife like you. How many women know how to fry bacon the correct way?"

"I have a surprise for you," she announced gently but firmly.

What is it?" he demanded with a bit of suspicion in his voice.

"Jean is coming with the twins and the baby to spend three weeks with us. Frank is going to Paris and he doesn't want Jean to be alone. Feels better if she is with us."

John Porter almost swallowed his tongue. His face turned a deep red. Then he clinched both of his fists to prevent his hands from sweeping all the dishes off the table.

"Don't AGGRAVATE me!" he shouted.

"Oh, my poor husband," sighed his wife, Harriet. "I can't AGGRAVATE you. Perhaps I annoy you. But please don t use the word AGGRAVATE. That word means to make worse or more severe. When you AGGRAVATE a condition, it becomes more severe. Money worries AGGRAVATE Mrs. Smith's illness. This is the correct way of using the word. When you think of the word AGGRAVATE, also think of the word INTENSIFY. For both mean to increase in some degree a condition. The word AGGRAVATE comes from two Latin words: AD, which is a prefix meaning to, or toward. GRAVARE, which means to burden. Actually, when you use AGGRAVATE, you must have a condition which is not normal, and make it worse. Many people use AGGRAVATE in the sense of being annoyed. Actually, if you, my darling husband, felt happy because of the wonderful breakfast I gave you, how could you be AGGRAVATED? True, if I served you a terrible breakfast, and you had stomach trouble, then the news would AGGRAVATE your condition. Now tell me why you do not like Jean?

"Because she acts snobbish. Just because her mother left her some money, she feels she is, above us. When you invited her here last year, she wanted to run the house. She thinks she is among the HOI POLLOI."

Harriet Porter couldn't help laughing even though she was conscious that her actions were annoying her husband.

"Well, what mistake did I make now?" demanded her husband. "I am not as well educated as you are. That I admit. I went to night school. And it is day now. So perhaps my schooling only works best in the evening. Go ahead. I won't be too angry if you correct me here. At least others aren't present."

"You used HOI POLLOI in exactly the opposite of the correct meaning of what it really signifies. But cheer up, my darling husband. And many people do make the same mistake," Harriet said rather gently.

"Doesn't HOI POLLOI mean the upper classes, the aristocracy, the rich people, the ruling group, and the snobbish people?" questioned her husband with a bit of doubt in his voice.

He then looked at his wife to give him the correct meaning.

"HOI POLLOI comes from the Greek as a gift to our language and means the common people of masses. Often when you use HOI POLLOI it is preceded by THE. It is correct to have our hero in the play say the following: 'I hated the poverty of the group into which I had been born. At an early age I was determined to rise from the HOI POLLOI and become a member of the upper classes.' So you see if you don't like Jean, it has nothing to do with HOI POLLOI. I will admit to you that my sister-in-law does have a sharp tongue. And at times she liked to show off. But she really has a heart of gold."

"If she has a sharp tongue," smiled John Porter. "I hope she sticks herself with it. And if she has a heart of gold, then she should sell it right now. The market price for gold is high. But I do like your brother. Let's not figure out why he fell for her."

The door bell rang and Harriet was smart enough to answer it. Because it gave a break to the conversation. After all, if you cook a good breakfast for a man, let him enjoy it. Don t upset him with anything.

She returned in three minutes. There was a big smile on her face. And in her right hand was an open telegram.

"Be of good cheer, my husband," she advised. "Have a perfect day at the office. Jean can't come because the children have the mumps."

IS YOUR HAIR GROWING OR GOING?

Stand in front of a mirror. Take a long hard look at the top of your head. Do you have as much hair as one year ago? Do you see any new hair growth?

If your answer is no, it is important that you take steps today to save the hair you now have. If you act now, you may be able to reverse the trend on your head. You may be able to grow new hair faster than it is falling out. Doesn't that make sense to you? Wouldn't you like to look in the mirror a year from now and see more hair on your head than you see now? Why lose your hair if you don't have to?

CAN YOU SAVE YOUR HAIR?

Every year thousands of men and women go bald — needlessly — because of a scalp infection. This scalp infection is called seborrhea. Doctors say that three germ organisms cause seborrhea: staphylococcus albus, pityrosporum ovale, and microbacillus. These germs attack the sebocious glands and the hair follicles themselves. If not checked, permament damage is done. The hair follicles atrophy, lose their ability to produce new hairs. The result: premature baldness.

You can easily tell if you are a victim of seborrhea. If you have itchy scalp, dandruff, hair loss, very dry or oily scalp, the chances are that you have seborrhea. Neglect these symptoms and you invite baldness.

Treat your scalp to Ward's Formula. This amazing scalp medicine quickly controls seborrhea and stops the hair loss it causes.

Here's the Proof!

I must admit I didn't have much faith on it, but I hadn't been using Ward's one week before I could see it was helping me. I could feel my hair getting thicker.
E. K., Cleveland, Ohio

After using Ward's for only 12 days my hair has stopped falling out.
R. W. C., Cicero, Ill.

I am tickled to death with the results. In just two weeks time—no dandruff. W. T. W., Pacific, Cal.

Out of all the Hair Experts I went to, I've gotten the most help from one bottle of Ward's Formula.
C. La M., Philadelphia, Pa.

I feel encouraged to say that the infuriating scalp itch which has bothered me for 5 years is now gone.
J. M. K., Columbus, Ohio

Male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither the Ward treatment nor any other treatment is effective.

DOUBLE MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

In seconds, Ward's Formula kills the three parasitic germ organisms retarding normal hair growth. This swift germicidal action has been proven in scientific tests by a world-famous testing laboratory (copy of laboratory report sent on request). Ward's removes infectious dandruff, stops scalp itch, brings hair-nourishing blood to the scalp, tends to normalize very dry or oily scalp. In brief Ward's Formula corrects the ugly symptoms of seborrhea, stops the hair loss it causes. Ward's Formula has been tried by more than 550,000 men and women on our famous Double-Your-Money-Back Guarantee. Only 1.9% of these men and women were not helped by Ward's and asked for their double refund. This is truly an amazing performance.

Why not join the men and women who have successfully ended their troubles? Treat your scalp with Ward's Formula. Try it at our risk. In only 10 days you must see and feel the marked improvement in your scalp and hair. Your dandruff must be gone. Your scalp itch must stop. Your hair must look thicker, more attractive, and alive. Your excessive hair loss must stop. You must be completely satisfied — in only 10 days — with the improved condition of your scalp and hair, or simply return the unused portion for Double Your Money Back. So why delay? Delay may cost your hair.
